

One Day Course: Stained Glass with Catherine Dunstan - Thursday 25th June 2026 - 10am - 4 pm (6 hours)

This is an in-person course at the Glass School studio.

Course price: £180.00 GBP

What you will Learn

Come and learn the traditional craft of Stained Glass and make your own panel from scratch on this one day course with glass artist Catherine Dunstan.

This is a hands-on course where you'll be introduced to many processes, including glass cutting, leading, soldering, cementing and polishing your piece.

You'll get to choose from a large range of templates that will enable you to get a good grounding in the core skills, whilst also enabling you to finish your piece during the day, ready to take home and show off! Learn about different types of glass and choose from a wide range of colours and textures to suit your style.

You will be able to take your panel away with you on the day.

Skill Level and Essential Information:

This one-day course is suitable for beginners

Please wear closed-toed shoes and tie back long hair. Please wear clothes that you don't mind getting dirty, or bring an apron. Due to the use of lead, it is recommended that pregnant women do not attend. Soldering flux derived from animal fat is necessary on this course, so regrettably, the course is not vegan.

Course Outcome

A 20cm x 15cm stained glass panel.
